A message from our Temporary Administrator, Reverend Jozef Dudzik

Bishop Michael Fisher has appointed me as the temporary administrator of Resurrection Parish. I will hold this position until a new pastor is assigned.

My responsibility as administrator is to maintain the policies and present programs of the parish. More importantly, I am entrusted with the spiritual welfare of all parishioners.

I am praying for you and ask that as people of prayer, you remember me in your prayers. I pray that God will bless Resurrection Parish with more faith, love and hope.

Visiting priests will be celebrating Masses on Saturday and Sunday and for as many weekdays as possible. Currently, every Thursday and Friday, no priests are available. However, Deacon Ted May will be leading a Communion Service on Thursdays and Fridays.

I wish to thank Father Mike for his dedication and love and for all that he accomplished at Resurrection. I can assure you that we will finish all the projects that had started; such as the new floor in the church and sealing the parking lot.

The rectory office is now open Monday thru Friday from 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM for your needs.

Votive lights are now available for you to light.

The Faith Formation Program is being prepared for our children.

Thank you for your faithfulness and support of the parish. If need or want to get speak to me you can call Resurrection and leave a message with Kathy or call me at Our Lady Help of Christians parish.

I wish to thank everyone who works for and volunteers for the parish.

May God bless you.

Father Dudzik

Recently Deceased
